

The lower oil price has had an impact on the industry's cost base. Capitalising on this trend, Chariot has been able to realise competitively priced seismic programmes in Namibia and Brazil, and seabed coring programmes in Morocco and Mauritania. Chariot will continue to apply capital discipline through rigorous tendering.

